- If the group song team would like the group song title to be announced, this should be handed over to Diocesan Talent Coordinator. An announcer will announce the title prior to the start of the group song and this will not be included as part of the 3 Minute time for that group song team. Only the title/name and no other information of that group song will be announced. If it is a compilation of various permitted songs (as per group song rules), then it will be announced as a 'Compilation of Permitted liturgical songs' and the title of the individual songs comprising the group song will not be announced.

Bible Quiz

- The Bible Quiz will be conducted in English.
- Questions from 2 previously assigned books of the Bible for 2014.
- Only the Revised Standard Version (RSV) should be used.
- Time will be approximately 1 hour.
- One team from a parish of only 3 participants in the team. Each team will not have more than 3 participants.
- Each of the six teams will have 3 participants each. A teacher from a different SS Area will be assigned to each team as an evaluator.
- There will be 30 questions.
- Each of the questions will be read by the Quiz master and will appear on Screen as well.
- Once the Quizmaster reads a question, if a team has any question, or requires clarification, a member of the team may raise his/her hand.
- Once a question is read, and if there are no questions by the participants, at the direction of the Quizmaster, the 30 sec count-down timer on the screen will start. (Timer will start only after the Quizmaster provides any clarification. Please note, only team members are allowed to ask questions).

2014 Talent Competition Rules and Guidelines

- During the 30 seconds, each team can discuss amongst themselves and write down their Answer on the given Answer Sheet.
- Once the 30 seconds is up, the team can NOT write or change their Answer on the paper. The pen must be put down.
- After the 30 seconds is up, the Quiz Master will read out the answer, which will also appear on the screen. (Screen is expected at the area Level and Diocesan level.) The teacher assigned to the team will read out the answer written on the answer paper by the team, and the Quiz Master will decide if the answer is correct and awards the team has one point if the answer is correct.
- The points attained by each team will be noted on the Score-Screen.
- Each complete correct answer, determined by the Quiz Master, will be awarded one point. (If the answer is incorrect, zero should be entered as the score. This is to ensure that credits are given for each question)
- There are no half points or fraction points.
- No points will be awarded if the answer is not complete. [Example: Question-Who is the first man and woman created by God? If the answer by the team is "Adam" and not "Adam and Eve", then no point will be awarded to the team for this answer as team's given answer is partial and not complete. No partial or fraction point will be awarded.]
- At the end of the 30 questions, the team with the highest score will be declared as the winner. The Second place will be given to the team with the next highest score. This is the scenario where there is not tie for both first and second positions.
- If there is a tie at the end of the 30 questions, a tie breaker question will be given to the teams in the first place tie-position and all other teams will be eliminated. Tie-breaker questions will be given until a clear winner can be determined. Only the tied teams shall advance.
- At the end of 30 questions if there is a clear first place winner, they will be declared as a first place winner. If there is a tie for the second place, the winner will be selected with tie-breaker question with only teams in the tie-position for the second place. (If there is a tie for the first place, the rest of the teams will be eliminated, and the tie will be broken keeping the teams that are tied for the first place. The second place winner will be selected after breaking the tie for the first place.)
- If there is a clear winner at the end of the 30 questions, the Quiz Master will declare the team as the FIRST PLACE winner. The Quizmaster will move on to decide the second place winner immediately, if there is a clear second place winner and Quiz competition will end there.
- If there is a tie between two or more teams for the first place after 30 questions, there will be a tie breaker question for only those teams in the tie-position They will be provided with one question at a time until a winner is decided. Team who wins will be declared as FIRST PLACE winner and the one with the next highest will be declared as SECOND PLACE winner. All teams will not be contesting at this stage.
- If two or more teams have confusion about a question, the Quizmaster has the option to cancel that particular question.
- The Quizmaster shall have the option to skip questions that are vague, or may cancel a question when one or more teams requests clarifications that cannot be addressed to the satisfaction of the Quizmaster or the teams.

2014 Talent Competition Rules and Guidelines

- The Quizmaster shall have the authority to make all decisions related to question and answers, as per the rules and guidelines, without consulting with any officials. If there is any issue or concern regarding the Question or Answer or with the Quiz format or any other Quiz related concern, the Quizmaster shall make the appropriate decision as per rules and guidelines.
